Anti-Corruption: In the case it is established that according to Article 14 of the Law on Integrity and Corruption Prevention (ZIntPK - Uradni list RS, št. 69/11 – UPB, 158/20 in 3/22 – ZDeb).in relation to this contract, the contractor themselves or somebody else in their name or on their behalf promise, offer or give any kind of illegitimate benefits for the acquisition or for a business conclusion on more favorable terms or for the failure of due supervision over the implementation of contractual obligations or of other conduct or failure by which damage is caused to the contracting authority, or the acquisition of an illegitimate benefit is made possible for a representative of the contracting authority, for an agent of the contracting authority, for the contractor or their representative or agent, this agreement becomes void; if the agreement is not valid yet, it is deemed as not concluded.

This contract is concluded under a resolutive condition: The contract will be terminated if one of the following circumstances is fulfilled:

- If the contracting authority is aware that the court has determined by a final decision that the labour, environmental or social legislation has been violated by the contractor/seller or subcontractor; or
- If the contracting authority is aware that the competent national authority has identified at least two infringements in the contractor/seller or subcontractor at the time of performance of the contract in relation to:
 - o remuneration for work,
 - o working hours,
 - o rest,
 - o the performance of work on the basis of civil law

contracts, despite the existence of elements of an employment relationship or in connection with the employment of illegal workers and for which a fine for a minor offense has been imposed by a final decision or several final decisions, and provided that the acquaintance with the infringement and the expiry of the validity of the contract happened at least six months before the last date of validity of the contract, or in case when the contractor/seller acts with the subcontractor, if the contractor/seller does not substitute or replace this subcontractor in the manner in accordance with Article 94 of the ZJN-3 and determined by this contract within 30 days from the knowledge of the infringement.

In the event of the fulfillment of the circumstances and conditions referred to in the preceding paragraph, the contract shall be deemed to have been dissolved from the date of conclusion of the new contract for the execution of a public contract for the contract in question. The contracting authority shall inform the contractor/seller of the date of conclusion of the new contract. If the contracting authority does not initiate a new public procurement procedure within 30 days of becoming aware of the infringement, the contract (contract) shall be deemed to have been dissolved on the thirtieth day after the acquaintance with the infringement.

This Agreement shall continue in effect for one (1) year from the first day of the calendar year that follows the Agreement Date, and assuming the availability of funding, this Agreement shall renew for successive one (1) year terms unless earlier terminated by either party by written notice not less than ninety (90) days prior to the end of the then-current term.
